WELCOME TO LOCH PARK

Three weeks have passed since we kicked off the league campaign with a narrow and well deserved win over Pollok at Loch Park. Ally Park powerful header early in the first proved to be the decisive goal in a gritty performance against the well fancied Glasgow side.

The trip to newly promoted Kilwinning Rangers saw the Buffs take the lead in the first half through Ben Lewis from the penalty spot which was cancelled out soon after the restart by a fine strike from Cammy Marlow. Chances came and went for both sides and in the end the points were shared.

On the road again and away to Kilbirnie with the outcome of the corresponding fixture last season still fresh in the mind. Déjà vu when David Gray fired home a fabulous free-kick and Ally Park finished off a fine passing to give us a two goal lead. There was to be no repeat of a Ladeside comeback after Chris Dallas finished in style for a 3-0 win and three points, to extend our unbeaten league run to three games .

Today we are delighted to welcome back the management and players, of Auchinleck Talbot to Loch Park We welcome them as reigning champions and congratulate them on winning the Premier Division title for a record breaking 5th time and four-in-a-row. An extra warm welcome to the Auchinleck supporters that have travelled to get behind their team too!

McBookie.com Super Premier Division Match 01

Saturday 27th August 2016 | Loch Park, New Cumnock

Glenafton began their league campaign with a 1-0 victory over Pollok at Loch Park and truth be told there was much more between the two sides on the day than Ally Park's headed goal on 18 minutes.

The Glens were first to threaten on 7 minutes after Orsi's low drive from outside the box was stopped and the loose ball then pounced on by keeper Jordan Longmuir. Four minutes later Marlow snapped up a defensive header from Paul Gallacher, forced his way into the box before taking Mark Sideserf out of play as he squared the ball for the intruding Orsi only for the back-tracking Del Hepburn to time his tackle perfectly and prevent the Glens midfielder firing from 12 yards out.

Pollok made progress down the right and the unusually quiet Gary McCann managed to get to the dead-ball line only for his cut-back into the box cleared at the near post by Menzies. The loose ball was gathered by Cairns who combined with Dallas to set Lynnas off and running down left wing after giving former Glens player Findlay Frye the slip and then sending the ball up the line to chase only for central defender Ross McCabe to come across with no intent (or chance) of playing the ball and hacked down the Glens winger, out of character of the big defender it has to be said. The referee immediately pulled out a card and to the disbelief of the home support and bench (and perhaps many of their Pollok counterparts), the card flashed was yellow in hue.

Tempers cooled, play resumed and on 15 minutes the visitors won a free-kick in a dangerous position on the edge of the box and although Carlo Monti's free kick beat the wall the ball sailed harmlessly wide of the post - setting the scene for the visitors' below par set plays throughout the game.

On 18 minutes the home side put a free-kick wide on the left to greater use. Gray clipped the ball deep into box where Ally Park, in the space between Sideserf and McCabe, jumped unchallenged to bullet a downward header from 8 yards out that flashed into the net beyond the reach of the keeper.

Four minutes later Park came within a whisker of doubling Glenafton's lead following clever build up play between Lynass and Dallas that took the ball into the Pollok before it was rolled back for Park to thunder a shot from 22 yards out that whizzed past Longmuir at full stretch and inches wide of the post. Glens continued to press and Lynass outjumped Hanlon to get a head to Orsi's cross only for McCabe to head clear. Soon after another cross into the box evaded McCabe only for Marlow to loop his header over the bar. Before the break Pollok enjoyed a spell of pressure through a free kick floated into the back post and a couple of corner kick none of which resulted in McGarrity in goal being tested.

H/T Glens 1 Pollok 0

In the first action after the break Hanlon's cross to the back post from wide on the right was cleanly clutched under the bar by McGarrity as Conti challenged. The keeper's throw-out began another Glens attack deep in their half and that ended with Lynass breaking free to skip round the advancing keeper at the edge of his area and close in on the empty goal only for Hanlon to keep the visitors in the hunt with a last ditch tackle.

The Glens came back again with powerful runs for Park and then Orsi to the bye-line, the latter earning a corner-kick which was won in the air by McChesney and the ball snatched from the head of Dallas by Longmuir.

At the other end Monti collected a ball from Frye at the edge of box before turning and shooting but his low angled shot was easily gathered by McGarrity. A game of head tennis initiated in the Glens box after a free kick was floated to the back post ended with the keeper claiming the ball from the heads of McAusland and Hepburn.

On the hour mark the visitors suffered a scare when a misdirected pass back wrong-footed Longmuir but the keeper kept his cool and caught up with the ball before it found the gaping net to boot it out for a throw-in from which the Glens won a corner-kick. Park once again got the better of the Pollok backline only for his glancing header from inside the 6 yard box to go wide of target.

Pollok pushed forward for a spell with David Winters firing a couple crosses in from the left both of which were cleared by the head of McChesney. Back came Glens with Lynass breaking down the left before picking out Orsi in the box to quickly feed Marlow but his snapshot sailed high and wide of goal.

On 70 minutes the visitors won a corner-kick which was headed on by Gallacher at the near post with the ball falling to substitute Colin Williamson and under pressure from Orsi his close range shot sailed over the bar. Soon after, Williamson was brought down on the outskirts of the box by Park but Hanlon's poorly struck free kick deflected off the wall and out for a corner kick that was mopped up McAusland.

Lynass gathered the ball wide on the left at the half-way line and cut inside before threading the ball into the box for Marlow and as the midfielder tried to set up the shot the 'Lok defence took no chances and booted the ball out for a corner which ended with McChesney's header being held by the keeper.

On 87 minutes Glens brought on Chris Meikle for Craig Menzies, the visitors having used all their substitutes by this time. Two minutes later the Glens almost secured the points after Dallas held the ball up at the edge of the box before slipping it to Orsi on the right to chip the ball to the back post where it was met first time by Marlow only for his volley to thunder over the bar from the tightest of angles.

Longmuir was now launching long balls up the park as Pollok looked to sneak a point at the death and it almost paid off. Substitute Liam Rowan tried his luck from the edge of the box but his shot was blocked by Meikle and in the scramble for the loose ball the hopes of Michael Daly, McCabe and Hepburn of engineering an equaliser were undone with Meikle clearing the danger.

Saturday 10th September 2016 | Valefield Park, Kilbirnie

Glenafton had the ball in the net after 10 minutes when Joe Andrew guided home a David Gray free kick into the net from close range, only for the offside flag to curtail the visitors celebrations. Both sides created a couple of decent chances before the New Cumnock side broke the deadlock three minutes before the break. Former Glenafton played Chris Malone rash tackle at the edge of the box was punished by former Ladeside player David Gray's (top right) superbly struck free kick, matching the one he scored in the same fixture last season.

On 53 minutes the visitors doubled their lead after a passage of fine flowing football was finished off in some style. Glens pushed forward in numbers as Chris Dallas switched played from deep on the left to Dan Orsi wide on the right who then skipped past a defender before driving for the bye-line to cut the ball back for the intrushing Ally Park (front cover) to sweep the ball into the net. The hosts were further punished after giving away possession and the loose ball retrieved by Chris Dallas (bottom right) to coolly chip the ball over the keeper to make in 3-0 after 69 minutes. There were was to be no repeat of last season when Kilbirnine had fought back from 2-0 down to win 3-2 and it was the Glens that looked the likelier to add to their tally with Dan Orsi and Cameron Marlow each going close.

RECORD BREAKERS !

SEASON 2015/16

The accolade of record breakers is of course a familiar one for Auchinleck Talbot as they were crowned West Region Premier Division Champions for a 5th time and extended their consecutive title wins to four-in-a-row. Their ever present appearance in the top flight now stands at 14 seasons. The title was clinched in late May with a 1-0 away to Hurlford United their only remaining challengers, pay-back of sorts after the Blair Park side had knock the holders out of the Scottish Junior Cup at the Quarter-Final stage. Although Talbot exited the Ayrshire Cups—Weekly Press & Ardagh Glass—at the same stage the West of Scotland Cup came back to Beechwood for the second time in three seasons and for the 12th time in the history of competition. For good measure the Evening Times Champions Cup was lifted aloft after a 5-2 victory over Renfrew, the Central District 1st Division Champions.

SEASON 2016/17

Manager Tommy Sloan's strategy for summer signings included 'setting out to bring fresher, younger players to augment the current squad and provide stronger competition'. The new faces have shown up well and the blend of youth and experience is sure to benefit Talbot in the long run. Joining the club from St Mirren's U20 is 19 year old striker Dylan Pooler from Irvine who previously played for the Kilmarnock U17's & U20's and represented Scotland at U15, U16 and U17 levels. Midfielder Dylan Stevenson joined the Morton youth academy in 2012 and went on to captain U17 side and the SPFL Development Team that went on to win SPFL West League last season. Dylan made a few appearances for the 1st team and had a loan spell at Berwick Rangers and his home team Dalry Thistle. Joining from Darvel Juniors is the promising versatile youngster Neil McPherson who can play in defence or midfield. Former Rangers U20 player 27 year old Ross Harvey adds to the defence field options at Beechwood. While at Ibrox he had a loan spell at Brechin City before joining Dumbarton and from there he headed Down Under—having spells with Inglewood United, Brisbane Force and Geelong Soccer Club. Defender Danny Boyle played a huge part in Rob Roy's successful return to the Premier Division, having joined the club from their current landlords Cumbernauld United. Defender 20 year old Craig McCracken joins from Ayr United having enjoyed a loan spell at Beechwood last season. Coming in as cover for Andy Leishman is former Meadow and Neilston keeper Brian Hewiitt.

Auchinleck's Ardagh Cup campaign proved to be a bit of a slow burner beginning with a narrow 4-1 win away at Muirkirk. Summer signing Grant Drummond, who has since left the club, opened the scoring only the hosts to level before the break. Bryan Young restored Talbot's lead on the hour and goals from Mark Shankland and Steven While in the closing minutes completed the scoring. Chris Dallas gave the Glens an early lead from the penalty spot at Loch Park while Gordon Pope uncharacteristically missed from the spot before the home side passed up some good chances to extend their lead. Talbot turned up the heat in the closing minutes and were rewarded after Martin McGoldrick headed home a corner-kick on the 90th minute. In a game of two halves a Mark Shankland free kick put Talbot ahead at Beechwood in the first half only for on-form striker Scott Anson to level for Cumnock in the second. In the Auchinleck derby Drummond headed the home side ahead against visitors Lugar and the points were eventually sealed on the 72 minutes through Graham Wilson's strike. With the Glens losing to Cumnock, a win at Kello would secure Talbot's passage to the knock-out stage and they more than delivered with a 7-2 cuffing of the Kirkconnel side which included four goals from Dwayne Hyslop and a goal each for Ross Harvey, Bryan Young & Stephen Wilson. As section runners-up Talbot travelled to Troon in the quarter-final where goals from Kier Milliken and Hyslop put the visitors two up with 20 minutes gone before the home side halved the deficit five minutes before the break. There was to be no further scoring and it was the Auchinleck side that would host Beith in an eventful semi-final. The visitors had keeper Calum McBain sent off, his place taken by midfielder Tommy Martin, before Kier Milliken lobbed the stand-in goalie. Paul Frize equalised for the 10 men only for Dylan Stevenson to open his Talbot account for a late equaliser and set up a meeting with Kilbirnie Ladeside in the final.

The champions league side got off to a flying start with an emphatic 4-0 win over Arthurlie at Barrhead. Gordon Pope headed home from close range in 13 minutes and help set up the second on the half hour mark after his ball into the box for Wilson was deflected past his own keeper by David Morrison. In the second half Milliken scored the pick of the bunch before Dylan Pooler opened his Talbot account with a late strike. There have been no further league games due to Scottish Cup ties.

Auchinleck travelled to face South of Scotland league side Wigtown & Bladnoch in the Preliminary Round 1 of the Scottish Cup. After a dull first half Talbot took the lead just before the hour mark through a cracking free kick from Mark Shankland and Stephen Wilson added a second soon after. Both players went on to bag a brace each as Talbot strolled to Preliminary Round 2 to face Beith.

In an enthralling cup-tie at Bellsdale Bryan Young volleyed home on 45 minutes to put the visitors ahead but the half-time oranges would have a tasted less sweet after Gary Wilson drew the sides level in injury time. Nicky Docherty turned the tables on 69 minutes to put the hosts ahead but it was the mighty that were left with the bitter late taste in their mouth after Gordon Pope conjured up an equaliser on 85 minutes. The Mighty Beith blew Bot away at Beechwood with a powerful display. The visitors took the lead in 2 minutes after David McGowan latched on to a John Sheridan pass before bursting into the box and giving Andy Leishman no chance. Darren Christie punished a defensive lapse to fire home from close range and double Beith's advantage midway through the half. Matters went from bad to worse for the hosts after Bryan Young earned a second yellow card just before the hour mark before Mark McLaughlin added a third to complete the scoring and put Beith through to the 1st round proper.

Charity Game: Rangers Supporters V Celtic Supporters

- ♦ Sunday 9th October 2016
- ♦ In Aid of Children with Cancer

Local Man Derek Montgomery is holding his annual charity game in aid of children with cancer at Loch Park , New Cumnock on Sunday 9th October 2016, he has so far raised over £20,420 over the last four years and is dedicated to his charity event. It will be free entry and we welcome donations at the gate for the charity. There will be various stalls including home baking, face painting, temporary tattoos and entertainment on the park and in the Campbell hall. So please let's have a massive tur out for this amazing event. We have been told the Rangers team will be managed by Glenafton Athletic committee man James "Hamish" Campbell and Celtic By Scott McSkimming and both lads are working over-time to get there squads together. You can make a donation online on Derek Montgomery's Facebook Page or on club matchday if you cannot make the event
