WELCOME TO LOCH PARK

The loss of an early goal to a Hurlford penalty kick last week was enough to inflict only our second home league defeat of the season. Try as we might we couldn't fashion an equaliser. With Rob Roy and Auchinleck sharing the points in a goal-less draw and Beith without a game the top of the league remains very tight. Our four game run-in begins today with another tough game against Arthurlie after the two sides shared the points in a close encounter at Barrhead. John Carter gave us the lead with a sweet first -half strike before the home side drew level with a well taken shot from Jimmy Lindsay after the break.

Today we are delighted to welcome the players and management of Arthurlie in what is their final league game of the season. An extra warm welcome to the 'Lie fans who have travelled to get behind their team too!

PLEASE, ENJOY THE MATCH !

Ayrshire Weekly Press Cup | 2nd Round

Wednesday 3rd May 2017 | Hamilton Park, Girvan

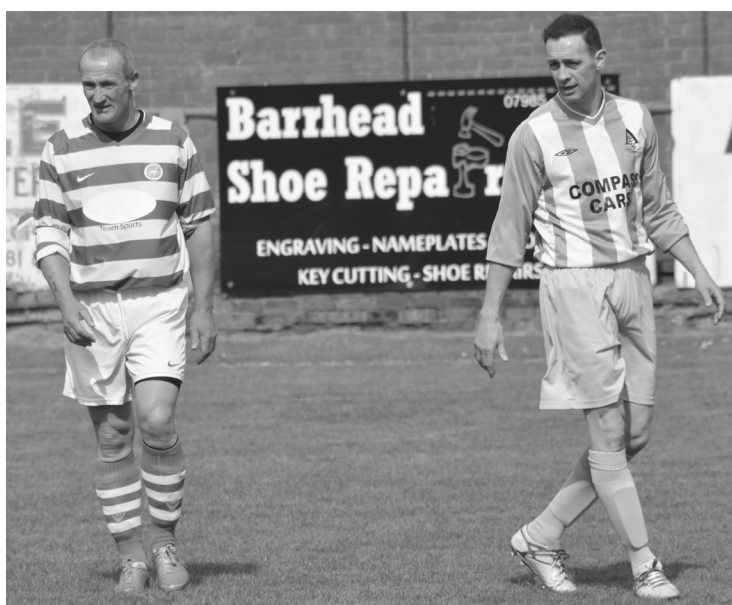

In a game of few chance it was Super League 1st Division side Girvan that progressed to the Quarter-final through the only goal of the game scored by Andy Stevenson in the second half. A corner-kick was only partially cleared by the Glens defence before the ball was recovered wide on the right and floated to the back post where although keeper Blair Lochhead got both hands to it and push it away a umarked Andy Stevenson nipped in to score from tight angle.

“The Legends 10th Anniversary”

Well done Robert, on a fantastic 10 years of great football and gear charity work!

Glenafton Athletic 0 (0) Hurlford 1 (1)

McBookie.com Super Premier Division | Match 19

Saturday 6th May 2017 | Loch Park, New Cumnock

Glenafton suffered only their second home league defeat of the season after losing out to an improving Hurlford side that in recent weeks have escaped the relegation battle and secure a top half finish.

In bright sunshine and against a strong wind the visitors came flying out the traps and after gathering the ball on the right Paul McKenzie played a neat one-two with Mark Roberts to progress down the right and whip a ball to the back post for the incoming Ross Brash only for the referee to spot his push on Ryan McChesney.

Ford's keeper launched a free-kick down the right which McKenzie quickly trapped before skipping past Alan Cairns and slipping the ball to Ross Robertson who completed a one-two to take Ryan McChesney out of play to allow McKenzie to continue his run into the box where he was brought down by Cameron Marlow. The spot kick was slammed home by Ross Robertson to give the visitors the lead with 2 minutes gone.

Glens first chance came 5 minutes later through a David Gray kick from 30 yards out which sailed wide of the post. McKenzie then chipped a free-kick from the left corner of the penalty box with Ross Fisher the target but Craig Menzies beat him to the jump and the ball fell safely into the hands of Brian McGarrity.

Glens physio Michelle McInnes had a busy spell after Gray got a crack in the jaw from Brash's flying and a minute later Ross Fisher won the ball with a high foot only for his follow through to catch Marlow full on and floored the Glens' midfielder; no foul let alone a card left the home support perplexed!

The home side then enjoyed a good spell of pressure and on 20 minutes a corner kick was met by an unchallenged McChesney on the edge of the six-yard box only for his powerful header to dip over the bar.

Gray's free-kick floated into the box was headed over his own bar by Chris Robertson and the visitors mopped up the resulting corner-kick. Another corner-kick was played short to Cairns and his cross into the box was eventually cleared as the Glens continued to press. Joe Andrews' shot dipping shot from 20 yards out went over the bar while Marlow low's drive slipped wide of the post before Gray's free-kick from 30 yard out was comfortably held by keeper Ally Brown.

Back came Hurlford and on 31 minutes they passed up a great opportunity to double their lead. The lively Dean Agnew snapped up the ball on the left-hand corner of the penalty box and although his first attempt to the cross the ball was his second bite at the cherry ended plumb on the head of the rising Ross Robertson only for the ball to slip inches wide of the back post with the keeper beaten.

Robertson then returned the favour and picked out Agnew in the box with a peach of a pass to drill a low shot that McGarrity got down low to save well. Ten minutes from the break McKenzie did well to kill a pass into the box and tee up a shot only to skew the ball wide of target as the red shirts closed in.

The final chance of the half fell to the home side after winning another corner-kick and again McChesney lost his markers and again his header looped over the bar.

HT Glens 0 Hurlford 1

Glens started the second half brightly with Brown in the Ford goal called into action through saving a low angled from Conor Lynass, blocking a shot from John Carter after latching onto a great pass from Gray and then holding Marlow's shot from distance. The home side continued to push for the equaliser but were finding it difficult to penetrate into the box with Chris Robertson and Richie McKillen standing firm at the heart of Hurlford's defence.

On 53 minutes Carter in the box and with his back to goal held off Robertson to roll the ball back out the box for Gray to thunder a shot that went screaming past the post. McKillen then got a header to a Glens corner kick and the ball fell for Marlow only for the former Glens defender to block that too.

Both sides made changes with the visitors bringing on Stewart Kean for Mark Roberts while the home side replaced Ryan Borris with Darren McGill. Despite their pressure the Glens were almost caught out when another attack was broken down and McKenzie gathered the ball and surged forward from the half-way line to the outskirts of the Glens box before lashing a left foot shot that McGarrity tipped over the bar. McKillen's powerful header from the corner kick that followed was cleared by Cairns.

Hurlford strengthened their midfield by replacing the attack-minded Agnew with Stephen Chisholm while the Glens countered by bring on forward Mick McCann for Cameron Marlow.

The home side won another corner-kick without testing the keeper while at the other end Kean gathered the ball in the box and played it back to McKenzie at the edge of the box to hit a cracking low shot that whizzed wide of the post.

With 15 minutes to go Dan Orsi chipped the ball high into the box forcing Brown to rush off his line to punch the ball from the head of Carter but failed to connect properly and the ball fell for McCann only for his attempt to chip Brown fall into the keeper's hands. Four minutes later the Gray-McChesney combo to engineer another header at goal that was saved comfortably by Brown

Set pieces continued to be the most likely route for the side to salvage a point. On 82 minutes Gray whipped a free-kick into a packed box and McChesney outjumped Robertson only for his flashing header to scrape inches wide of the post with the keeper beaten.

In the last minute Hurlford came close to delivering a sucker punch after Kean's shot was blocked by the outrushing McGarrity and the ball fell for Ross Robertson on the edge of the box only to miskick his shot and send the ball high in the air.

A hopeful long ball lobbed high into the box ended with Brown coming out to punch the ball clear as three Glens shirts challenged and in the final action of the match Lynass's header from 12 yards flew wide of the target.

Welcome to ARTHURLIE

SEASON 2016/17

Arthurlie's Sectional Cup campaign got off to a winning start again St. Anthony's with goals from Gary Smith—his 50th for the club and Martin Curren—his first for the club. However back-to-back defeats against the Farmers Boys and the Bens effectively ended their interest in the competition with the consolation of a 1-1 draw at home to Pollok extending their unbeaten against their rival to six games.

Lie hosted Auchinleck in the opening league game of the season with the champions winning with the slightly flattering 4-0 scoreline. A draw at Ladeside was followed by back-to-back wins over Troon—Chris Mackie injury team header sealing the point—and Cumnock where Gary Smith bagged a brace. Another defeat to Talbot was eased with a fine 4-2 win over Largs. That unbeaten run against Pollok came to an end at Newlandsfield with the home side edging it 2-0. A run of three game saw Lie face teams they had already played in the league beginning with another 3 goals and 3 points against Troon to put the Barrhead side 5th in the league. They suffered a reversal in another high scoring game against Largs - the 9 men of Theesel overcoming 10 men Lie to win their first league points of the season. Arthurlie completed the league double over Cumnock at Townhead with a double from debutant John Gemmell. Gemmel scored against his former side Hurlford the following week to put 'Lie 2-0 up at the break, only for 'Ford to hit four without reply before the home side levelled it a 4-4 for what seemed a share of the point—until the visitors scored in injury time. Back-to-back 2-0 defeats against Rob Roy and Beith ended with Stevie Kerrigan leaving Dunterlie and Chris Mackie taking over as player-manager. Three wins in a row against Kilbirnie, Kilwinning and Hurlford out the smiles back of the faces on the 'Lie faithful until the visit of Pollok when 9 men Arthurlie were humbled 6-1. Three consecutive games against title challengers Rob Roy, Beith and Glenafton yielded one point—in a home draw against the Glens—the point sufficient to secure Arthurlie's Premier Division status in a challenging season. They following this by completing the league double over Kilwinning Rangers last week-end.

The Buffs had proved to be a bogey team in the cup competitions knocking Arthurlie out of the West of Scotland in the 1st round at Dunterlie two weeks later knock them out of the Scottish Junior Cup in the same round with a 3-1 win in a replay at Dunterlie. Silverware remain in offer after Lie progressed to the Central League Cup Quarter-final with wins over Larkhall Thistle and Gartcairn.
